ANNOUNCEMENT HIGHLIGHTS:

- Concert to take place May 15th at The Mayan in Los Angeles, CA
- Live performance and interview to be filmed for a live concert special airing exclusively on DIRECTV's Audience Network (channel 239)
- Muse's seventh studio album 'Drones' will be released June 9th via Warner Bros. Records

Los Angeles, CA (April 30, 2015): Guitar Center and DIRECTV have announced that Grammy Award-winning rock band Muse will be performing in Los Angeles at The Mayan on Friday, May 15th. The concert gives fans a chance to see Muse up close and personal in an intimate setting nearly a month before the release of their seventh studio album DRONES which will be released June 9th by Warner Bros. Records.

The show will be captured in stunning 4k and 5.1 surround sound and premier as a live concert special exclusively on DIRECTV's Audience Network (channel 239). The special will include and exclusive live performance and an intimate interview with Muse conducted by influential radio DJ and music journalist, Nic Harcourt.

"As the worlds largest retailer of musical instruments, it's only fitting that we partner with Muse, one of the worlds largest rock bands. For a band of Muse's stature to play in a venue as intimate as The Mayan is a rare and unique occasion and we feel privileged to be able to capture the moment and share with fans across the country."

-Brian Berman, Vice President of Marketing
